

ATGENDER invites the submission of proposals for edited volumes, for the Teaching With Gender Series, published in cooperation with Routledge. The volumes in this series address challenges and possibilities of teaching about women and gender in a wide range of educational contexts (for more information about the series and previous volumes click here).

Who Can Submit?

Submission is open to all but priority will be given to ATGENDER members.

Topics

Submissions are welcome in the fields of intersectional women's, transgender, queer and sexuality studies, and especially on the intersectional nature of marginalization; including theoretical debates, qualitative and quantitative researches and teaching practices across international settings.

Submission Guidelines

A proposal should be between 2000-2500 words (max).

The following information has to be provided:

- * Name and address (regular and e-mail) of the corresponding editor (in case that there are several editors, please indicate one corresponding name, address and e-mail).
- * Tentative title of the proposed volume.
- * Tentative table of contents (including the tentative list of authors).
- * Rationale for this proposal.
- * List of key words.
- * Sections or particular issues/themes to be discussed.
- * Short bibliography.
- * Scientific contribution/volume positioning in relation to relevant literature.
- * Target audience.
- * Time-frame for the completion of the manuscript.

Where to Submit?

Proposals should be sent to: info@atgender.eu until September 30, 2018